

KAI Sengokuhara named to AFAR Magazine's "The Stay List"

Hoshino Resorts KAI Sengokuhara (Hakone, Kanagawa Prefecture) was selected as one of 27 new worldwide hotels recommended by AFAR magazine's "The Stay List" released on April 10th, 2019. AFAR Magazine is a specialist American travel magazine targeted at upper-class North American travelers and issued by AFAR Media.

KAI Sengokuhara opened in July 2018 as the 15th facility of the KAI hot spring resort brand managed by Hoshino Resorts. It features the concept of a "studio hot spring inn" and stands amid Sengokuhara's majestic nature. The scenery of the four seasons can be enjoyed from the open-air baths and windows of every guest room. Furthermore, various artworks inspired by this environment are displayed around the resort and in each guest room.

AFAR is a specialist American travel magazine targeted at upper-class North American travelers. 1.1 million copies are issued in a year and it is read by top earners. It introduces genuine travel experiences through local cultures and activities. Specially chosen out of many new hotels from all over the world to be a part of the "The Stay List" recommended by the magazine's writers and editors, KAI Sengokuhara was praised for being located amidst abundant nature despite its proximity to the metropolitan area and its positive effect on the inspiration of guests who stay there. The guest rooms possess both Western and Japanese elements, with sofas on top of tatami mats. The meals served allow guests to fully enjoy ingredients from the mountains and sea such as beef and abalone, and with a nightly KAI Activity, guests can enjoy an art experience which involves painting and coloring on hand towels.
