

The New “Terrace Living Suite” for a Three Generation Vacation

Hoshino Resorts RISONARE Atami (Atami, Shizuoka)

Hoshino Resorts RISONARE Atami is a resort hotel with beautiful ocean views from every room. The Terrace Living Suite, a suite renovated in April 2019, can be used comfortably by friends staying together as well as large or three-generational families. In addition to the hot springs with ocean views, the hotel has a tree house and high ropes course built in 300-year-old camphor trees, a café made to resemble beaches using white sand, and more; guests can enjoy a range of experiences without ever needing to leave the hotel.

Two Unique Characteristics

1. Terrace Living Suite, renovated in April 2019, which can be comfortably used by a large group

A large guest suite over 100 square meters, housing up to six people at once

This suite has the largest capacity of any guest suite in Hoshino Resorts RISONARE Atami. The large suite (more than 100 square meters) features a living space for relaxation, two bedrooms, and a “Terrace Living Room” that connects the outdoor terrace with the indoor living room; the family can gather here and look out over Sagami Bay.

2. Two restaurants to choose from: Japanese restaurant and buffet

In large groups, people will have many different tastes. Hoshino Resorts RISONARE Atami has two restaurants to choose from: the Japanese restaurant Dining HANABI, and a buffet restaurant called Studio Buffet MOGMOG. For example, if guests were having dinner with three generations of their family, then the family members with children could go to the buffet, and the grandparents could go to the Japanese restaurant, or they could choose which one they want to go to based on their preferences.

The Japanese restaurant Dining HANABI

A traditional Japanese restaurant that uses seasonal flavors, with a focus on seafood like turban shells and Alfonsino. The interior design is based on the Atami Fireworks Fair on the Sea, and it feels like guests are surrounded by fireworks while they enjoy their meal.

Studio Buffet MOGMOG

A buffet restaurant that makes abundant use of the flavors of the sea and mountains. At the children's kitchen set up in the restaurant, called Kids' Studio, guests can get changed into a chef's coat and make their own dessert.
