

HOSHINOYA Guguan (Taichung, Taiwan)
Selected for Travel Magazine Travel + Leisure®
“The Best New Hotels in the World (It List)”

On February 20, 2020, HOSHINOYA Guguan, operated by Hoshino Resorts (headquartered in Karuizawa, Nagano; CEO Yoshiharu Hoshino), has been selected for Travel + Leisure® 2020 It List, which is their selection of the best new and newly renovated hotels around the globe.

Travel + Leisure® is one of the leading US travel magazines read by luxury travelers. Though primarily targeting North American travelers, it has a strong influence worldwide. The editors of magazine's yearly “The Best New Hotels in the World (It List)” select the finest accommodations that were opened or newly renovated during the year.

HOSHINOYA Guguan, opened June 30, 2019, Hoshino Resorts' first luxury hot spring resort outside of Japan, fed by Guguan's plentiful hot springs. Utilizing the abundance of hot spring water and the topography of a valley surrounded by mountains, each guest room is equipped with an open-air bath, an open public space to enjoy the wind and water.
